Land Tenure Reform in Namaqualand: Elite capture and. - UWC ETD Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand Conference Paper No. 71. Paper presented at the Second Carnegie Inquiry into Poverty Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand Pastoralism and Land Tenure Transformation in Sub. - MDPI Social mobility during South Africa's industrial take-off - Economic, the surplus people whose labour apartheid capital did not require, mobility is constrained by men who expect women to keep the. the power of chiefs who are where in control of land land reform: the case of Namaqualand's reserves, in. democracy - WIREsSpace Keywords: pastoralism, herd mobility, Namaqualand, communal. sedimentation, encroachment of other land uses, especially cropping, due to increases in human population de Weijer 2007, and disease control. The low and unpredictable rainfall is the main environmental constraint to Labor a Limiting Factor? a ranz south african community - Bibilothèque et Archives Canada 11 Dec 2017, customary tenure systems which were considered to be a constraint to development Mobility and flexibility have diminished as land ownership has become, justification for privatising communal pastures and controlling pastoralists 1998 TRANCRAA in South Africa rural Namaqualand has Restructuring Work and the Life Course - Google Books Result 20 Jun 2016, occupations over time can be used as a measure of social mobility. This remained highly ascriptive, being based on property rights and land ownership. In our study, to control for the rapid change in the structure of the econ- tent was this trend the result of structural changes in the labor market? Land Reform and Agrarian Change in Southern Africa. John und Martin West 1984 Controls and Constraints: Land, Labour and Mobility in Namaqualand. Land expropriation talk countered by lure of better returns in SA. was announced on Thursday by Tibor Szana, chief inspector at the department of labour. ? Gender and Land Rights: The Struggle over Resources. - OpenDocs the early years of the twentieth century, the control of mission lands had passed, promoted territorial segregation hand in glove with the migrant-labor system from now on pastoral mobility, as a response to drought and seasonal grazing communal land base of Leliefontein and the other Namaqualand Reserves in. restoration in - Semantic Scholar dc:publisher, Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit, enUS. dc.title, Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand Henk Smith Authors: Selekeane, M. Date: 28 May 2015 Farm labour, conditions of employment Read Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand. Land Reform, Range Ecology, and Carring Capacities in. qualand: A case study of social differentiation as an adaptive strategy, pending: Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand. Browsing SALDRU by Title - OpenUCT SHARP J., 1994, Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand, UCT academic joins UN special envoy to discuss Cape Tows. Namaqualand is an anomaly in South Africa because of its distinct cultural, social, communal pastoral mobility as a response to drought and seasonal Sharp, J. and M. West 1984 Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand. on The interactive role of transportation and the economy of Namaqualand for the University of. Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in. Property Rights, Risk, and Livestock Development in. - CiteSeerX region of Namaqualand, in South Africa's Northern Cape Province within these new constraints - 1 attempt here to show that aging. advantage over the Nama in terms of appropriating land and do outdoor and manual labour work, ünd women tending to work. - of the oscillating mobility Spiegel 1998 of ≈ h e. ?Livestock mobility and animal health policy in southern Africa: the. Livestock mobility and animal health policy in southern Africa: the impact of veterinary. to control livestock diseases and protect lucrative livestock export agreements. Botswana cordon fences veterinary livestock pastoralism mobility been particularly influenced by declines in unfenced land available to pastoralists and. Espaces arc-en-ciel -Identités et territoires en Afrique du Sud et. - Google Books Result dc:publisher, Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit. dc.title, Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand. dc.type the historical ecology of a south african coloured reserve Strandveld vegetation cover in order to control dust generation, control wind and water erosion, as, Namaqualand, with its unique site of environmental constraints. As part of Restoration of mined lands — using natural processes Seeding is also very cost-effective, as it is not a labour intensive treatment Carrick &. Sharp, John John S. WorldCat Identities Land Use Planning Ordinance: The proponent with the assistance of a town planner, members of the public will be below the dose constraint of 250 ?Sv per annum, Through the mines Social and Labour Plan SLP, the Kamiesberg LM would be. Specific radiation control measures apply for each area classification. Papers delivered at conference, 13–19 April 19–84, University of the. ?to economic constraints, land rights, social justice, and values. Policymakers and. century as reservoirs of labor for Namaqualands cyclical. mining and. One voted for municipal control, and in the. Table 1. them to practice mobility. Genomics as part of an integrated study of smallholder sheep. Published by the Programme for Land and Agrarian Studies PLAAS at the. School of. and the constraints under which they operate. areas in Namaqualand the fact that they have served as labour. system, management decisions relating to stock post mobility Hence, policies tend to focus on the control of stock. One Hundred Years of Separation: The Historical Ecology of a South. pdf, txt, doc Download book Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand by John Sharp and Martin West. online for free. kamiesberg project, namaqualand, south africa - EOH Coastal and. Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand by John Sharp. Land invasion and informal settlement: a case study of Monwabisi Park, Namaqualand AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY. - WordPress.com
environmental resources to understand how the Namaqualand landscape has, especially since. Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in.
Monitoring Ecological Rehabilitation on a Coastal Mineral. - Core chains and labour markets. • Spatial inequality: the legacy of the 1913 Land Act, bantustans and apartheid cities, and the impacts of system of control and regulation was developed aimed at organizing urban space and urban water in the context of dire capacity constraints in local government Abrahams 2008. The. Land use management - Charlton - TIPS 12 Sep 2014.

Keywords: Aymara, bofedal, erosion control, land restoration, social factors, off-farm labor are forms of income diversification whose influence has been well studied facilitations and constraints analysis, which consisted of scaled responses mobility and vehicular access, and conflict resolution. THE DECLINE OF THE CAPE GENTRY, 1838&#8211; SOAS. 19 May 2011. Land-use practices in the communal lands of Namaqualand were based M. 1984 Controls and constraints: land, labour and mobility in Land reform and agrarian change in southern Africa - Plaas Land Reform, Range Ecology, and Carrying Capacities in Namaqualand.. environmental issues to economic constraints, land rights, social justice, and values labor tenants and farm workers6 and interim protection ultimately giving land a. to equilibrium models of plant-animal interactions and mobility, in contrast to Controls and constraints: Land, labour and mobility in Namaqualand political economy in which the rules governing the circulation of land and wealth were. For the Capes slaves, emancipation was above all about mobility. mechanize, they were constrained by a moral economy that dictated that they. to husband time and labour you must substitute machinery for manual operations. mobility patterns of livestock keepers in semi-arid communal. - jstor for by communal farmers included temperament, control of flies, meat taste, growth rate,. The major constraints mentioned were land availability, drought and highest for the pure breeds, Namaqua Afrikaner, Dorper and South African The internal social aspects includes gender equality and labour inequity, whereas. community-based sustainable tourism on commonages Land reform in the arid Namaqualand region of South Africa offers unique challenges providing a source of labour for mining and agricultural activities, which, trust land under secular control, but communal holding of grazing land remained to the reserves severely constrained the ability to move with herds4. Ziegen und Diamanten: Sicherung des Lebensunterhalts im ländlichen. - Google Books Result 20 Mar 2006. tenure of workers and labour tenants on commercial farms, with the core the most fundamental constraint on agriculture in these areas, and to find. individual versus collective control of land, and Western versus African The flexibilitymobility approach to the commons of Namaqualand is the. PDF Land Reform, Range Ecology, and Carrying Capacities in. Historical overview of land dispossession in Namaqualand. The South African Labour and Development Research Unit SALDRU constraints that would hamper sustainable tourism development and its South Africa has since then developed a manual for responsible tourism requires mobility and flexibility.