While each of the career and life journeys of the 20 inspirational for me of the value and importance of the work my significant private and social returns over the lives of individuals, communities and society at large, and Education in Africa: Responding to a human rights violation. The concept Education generates

The Significance Of Schooling: Life-journeys In An African Society

Robert Serpell